Acknowledgements

I would like to thank a number of individuals whose help and support in the writing of this book have been immense. In the first place, I am deeply grateful to Associate Professor Homeira Moshirzadeh from University of Tehran who has been extraordinarily generous in reading the entire book, offering advice or observations and approving the book for printing.

I also need to express my deepest gratitude to Sarah Wette and David Barnes from the Foreign Service Academy, German Federal Foreign Office, for reviewing parts of the book and providing me insightful comments and perceptive advice on the substances and forms of some practices.

I would like to thank Mizan Press Director, Professor Abbas Shiri, and his professional staff for manuscript's preparation at the shortest possible time.

Last but not least, I have to thank my wonderful family to whom this book is dedicated, with love.
